Have You Made A Will?

MAKING A WILL GIVES YOU PEACE OF MIND THAT YOUR FAMILY'S FUTURE IS SECURE

A Will is an important legal document which allows you to decide how your estate is to be dealt with in the event of your death. If you should die without making a Will, strict rules govern how your estate is dealt with which may not be in accordance with your wishes. Married couples often assume that their spouse will automatically inherit but this may not be the case. A Will is essential for unmarried couples.

Reasons to make a Will

- Intestacy
- Civil partnership, Marriage, divorce: revoke will
- Guardianship: children under 18
- Certainty: Save arguments for family over who gets the valuable watch etc – you will have control over your assets and who receives them
- Inheritance tax savings such as nil rate band
- Property bought under shared ownership schemes: buyers require a Will as part of the contract
- Power of attorney: Lasting power of attorney in case of later incapacity and if spouses own property as tenants in common as spouse will not be able to sign contracts for them (both signatures required)
- Long term care planning: costs of going into a home and also keeping your home safe
- Choice of executors & trustees: people you know and trust
- Executorship service: we can be your executors - probate service
- Business property relief if clients own a business
- Deed of variation: within 2 years can insert the nbr trust and help in event of intestacy

Please tick one of the following statements, whichever applies, and return with the enclosed documentation:

1. I do not have a Will and would like further information on this subject.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. I would like to review my current Will.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. I have a current Will, which is appropriate to my circumstances (we recommend a review every 5 yrs).	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. I do not have a Will and do not wish to consider making one at this time.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. I would like to instruct The Specter Partnership to draft / review my will / wills.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
